16. Subject to Section 44 of the Act the directors may, on behalf of the Company, purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares issued by the Company for such consideration as they consider fit, and either cancel such shares or hold the said shares as authorised, but unissued shares.

Calls on Shares

17. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-half of the nominal value of the share or be payable less than thirty days from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.
18. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed, and may be made payable by instalments.
19. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
20. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate, not exceeding ten percent per annum, as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
21. On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the register as the holder, or one of the holders of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued, in pursuance of these Articles; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

22. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
23. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish, so far as the same shall extend, the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is made, and upon the money so received or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares concerned, the Company may pay interest at such rate (not exceeding five percent per annum) as the member paying such sum and the directors agree upon. No such sum paid in advance of calls shall entitle the member paying such sum to any portion of a dividend declared in respect of any period prior to the date upon which such sum would, but for such payment, become presently payable.
24. No member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present or to vote on any question, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting, or upon a poll, or to be reckoned in a quorum whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person.

Company's Lien on Shares

25. The Company shall have a lien on every share for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share; and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien and charge on every share standing registered in the name of a member for all the debts and liabilities of such member or his estate to the Company and that whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any equitable or other interest in any person other than such member, and whether the period for the payment or discharge of the same shall have actually arrived or not, and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such member or his estate and any other person, whether a member of the Company or not. The Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon. The directors may resolve that any share shall for some specified period be exempt from the provisions of this Article.
26. The Company may sell in such manner as the directors think fit any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of seven days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable, and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

27. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists, so far as the same is presently payable, and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the share prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the time of the sale.
28. To give effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

Forfeiture

29. If a member fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest and expenses which may have accrued.
30. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than seven days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment in accordance therewith the share in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
31. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share, and not actually paid before forfeiture. The directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.
32. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the holder of the share, or the person entitled to the share by transmission, and any entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any failure to give such notice or make such entry as aforesaid.

33. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto, or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. The directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer a forfeited or surrendered share to any such other person as aforesaid.
34. A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares, but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture or surrender remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at Fifteen percent per annum or such lower rate as the directors may approve) from the date of forfeiture or surrender until payment, but the directors may waive payment of such interest either wholly or in part, and the directors may enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or surrender.
35. A statutory declaration or affidavit that the declarant is a director or secretary of the Company, and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on a date stated in the declaration or affidavit, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration or affidavit and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together with the certificate of proprietorship of the share under the seal delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

The Directors may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the Company has a lien.

- 53A. Members attending a general meeting by electronic means shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in addition to those members (if any) attending the general meeting at the physical meeting location and any reference in these Articles to a person being "present" or "a show of hands" at a meeting shall include presence or a show of hands by electronic means. The meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chair of the general meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that members attending the general meeting by electronic means are able to speak and vote at it. Temporary or limited disruptions in electronic communications shall not render a general meeting or any resolutions passed at it invalid provided that members representing a quorum are present when the vote is taken. The Directors' responsibility in respect of an electronic general meeting shall be limited to the responsibility to make available a functioning electronic platform. Each member attending the meeting electronically shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining his own Internet connections¹⁹.
- 53B. The Directors may authorise any voting application, system or facility for electronic general meetings as they see fit and the Directors and/or the Chairman of the meeting may make any arrangement and impose any reasonable requirement or restriction they consider necessary or desirable to ensure the identification of those taking part in a general meeting and the security of the electronic communication²⁰.

54. A quorum shall consist of members present in person or by proxy holding or representing one-fifth in value of the subscribed and issued shares of the Company carrying the right to vote at general meetings.
55. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day two weeks thereafter at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes of the appointed time for holding the meeting, the members present shall constitute a quorum.
56. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, or in his absence the Vice Chairman²¹ or in his absence a director, shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting. In their absence the members present shall choose some director to be Chairman, or if no director be present, or if all the directors present decline to take the Chair, they shall choose some member present to be Chairman.
57. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
58. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by any member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Unless a poll be demanded (and the demand be not withdrawn) a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect be made in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution.
59. If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless it be pointed out at the same meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, and not in that case unless it shall in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.

²¹ Effective July 30, 2014

60. If a poll is duly demanded, (and the demand be not withdrawn) it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) as the Chairman may direct. The Chairman may (and if so requested shall) appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
61. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting) and place as the Chairman may direct. The result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.
62. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to call for a second vote on the matter.
63. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

Votes of Members

64. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.
65. In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand on the register of members.
66. No member shall, unless the directors otherwise determine, be entitled to vote at a general meeting either personally or by proxy, or to exercise any privilege as a member unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
67. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
68. On a poll, a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

69. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. A person appointed to act as a proxy need not be a member of the Company.
70. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority, shall be deposited at the office or other place indicated in the notice of meeting 48 hours or more before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting.
71. An instrument of proxy may be in such form as the directors shall prescribe or approve. The proxy shall be deemed to include the right to demand, or join in demanding, a poll and shall (except and to the extent to which the proxy is specially directed to vote for or against any proposal) include power generally to act at the meeting for the person giving the proxy. A proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates and need not be witnessed.
72. The directors may, at the cost of the Company, issue forms of proxy for use by the members with or without inserting therein the names of any of the directors or of any other persons as proxies. Except in the case of a meeting at which only routine business is to be transacted, forms of proxy shall be so issued to all members entitled to receive notices of the meeting, and shall be so worded that a proxy may be directed to vote either for or against any of the resolutions to be proposed.
73. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy, or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

Corporation Acting by Representatives

74. Any corporation which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.

Directors

75. Subject as hereinafter provided, the Directors shall be a minimum of five (5) and a maximum of eight (8) and the majority of whom (i) shall be independent of any instrumentality of the Government of The Bahamas and/or (ii) cannot be an employee or officer of the Company or any of its affiliates. A Director shall not require any qualification by way of holding any shares or other securities of the Company²².
76. Articles 75 shall not be amended except by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members.

Appointment and Retirement of Directors

77. (1) All Directors shall be appointed annually and at every Annual General Meeting all directors shall retire from office at the end of the meeting.²³
78. A retiring director at the end of his annual term shall be eligible for re-election, although no director shall have a right to be re-elected.²⁴
79. The office of a director shall be vacated in any of the following events, namely:
- (1) if he becomes bankrupt, or suspends payment, or compounds with his creditors;
 - (2) if he is found lunatic or becomes of unsound mind;
 - (3) if by notice in writing to the Company, he resigns his office;
 - (4) if he is requested in writing by members holding or representing more than one-half in value of the subscribed and issued shares of the Company having the right to attend and vote at general meetings to vacate his office;
 - (5) if he is removed from office by resolution at a general meeting;
 - (6) if he becomes prohibited by law or by the Act from acting as a director;
80. The Company at the meeting at which a director retires shall fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring director shall be deemed to have been re-elected unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill up such vacated office, or unless a resolution for the re-election of such director shall have been put to the meeting and lost, or unless such director shall have given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected.

81. No person other than a director or whose term has expired shall, unless recommended by the directors for election, be eligible for the office of a director at any general meeting unless not less than three nor more than fourteen clear days (save where special notice has been given of intention to appoint that person as a director in place of a director intended to be removed from office) before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been given to the Secretary notice in writing by some member, duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed of his willingness to be elected. This Article is subject to the requirement that at all times at least four members of the Board of Directors must be independent of any instrumentality of the Government of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas or of the Company or any of its affiliates²⁶.
82. The Company may by resolution of members of which notice has been given remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles or of any agreement between the Company and such director, but without prejudice to any claim such director may have for damages under and by virtue of such agreement. The notice of removal shall be in writing and signed by the member or members making the same, or in the case of a member being a Company, signed by one of its Directors on its behalf, and shall take effect upon lodgement at the office.
83. The Company may by resolution of members of which notice has been given appoint another person in place of a director removed from office under the last preceding Article, and in default thereof the vacancy may be filled by the directors as a casual vacancy. A person appointed hereunder shall complete the term of the removed director²⁷.
84. The directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any person to be a director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director, but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles. Any director so appointed shall complete the term of the removed director²⁸.

- (2) No director or officer or intending director or officer shall be disqualified by his office from contracting or dealing with the Company either as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any such contract, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any director or officer shall be in any way interested, be avoided.
 - (3) Nor shall any director or officer so contracting or dealing, or being so interested, be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director or officer holding that office or the fiduciary relation thereby established.
 - (4) Articles 86 (1) and (2) are subject to the requirement that the nature of the Director's interest must be disclosed at the meeting of the directors at which the contract or arrangement is considered, if the interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the directors after the acquisition of the interest.
 - (5) A director having disclosed the interest as aforesaid shall be entitled to be counted in the quorum present at such meeting and to vote as a director in respect of any contract or arrangement in which an interest has been disclosed.
 - (6) A general notice that a director is a member of any specified firm or Company and is to be regarded as interested in all transactions with that firm or Company, shall be a sufficient disclosure under this Article as regards such director and the said transactions, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary for such director to give a special notice relating to any particular transaction with that firm or Company, provided such notice is given at a meeting of the directors or brought up and read at the next meeting of the directors after it is given.

Director or Officer Holding Concurrent Office

86. Subject to Section 85(1) of the Act and Article 75 hereof a director or officer may be or become a director or officer of, or, otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as

Remuneration of Directors

87. The directors shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration for their services such sums as the directors may from time to time determine, and such remuneration shall be divided among them in such manner as the directors may determine, and in default of such determination within the year equally. The directors may by resolution also vote extra remuneration to the directors, or to any director, and either for one year or a longer or shorter period. The directors may repay to any director all such reasonable travelling and other expenses as he may incur in attending meetings of the directors, or of committees of the directors, or general meetings, or which he may otherwise incur in or about the business of the Company.
88. Any director who serves on any committee, or who devotes special attention to the business of the Company, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise as the directors may determine.
89. A director holding the office of Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, or President, or any other executive office shall receive such remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise as the directors may determine.

90. The directors may meet together at such time or times and place or places as they may determine for the dispatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings as they think fit, except that the directors shall meet for the purpose of appointing the Chairman³⁰ and Vice Chairman³¹ of the Board of Directors and officers pursuant to the provisions of Article 108 immediately following the Annual General Meeting in each year, and it shall not be necessary to give any notice in respect of such meeting.
91. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as Chairman of all meetings of the members and of the directors. He shall also perform all such other duties as may be prescribed by these Articles, the Company in general meeting or the directors³².

The Vice Chairman shall participate closely with the Chairman to develop and implement company strategy and perform such other responsibilities as may be prescribed by these Articles, the Company in general meeting, the Chairman or the directors³³.
93. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be a majority of the Directors who are independent of the instrumentality of the Government and/or are not employees or officers of the Company or its affiliates³⁴.
94. The Chairman, the Vice Chairman³⁵ of the Board of Directors, the President, or any three other directors may at any time convene a meeting of the directors. Every director shall be entitled to such notice of every meeting of the directors as may be from time to time determined by the directors, and every such notice shall be in writing or by cable, radiogram, telegram, e-mail or any other electronic communication. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote³⁶.
95. A director unable to attend any meeting of the directors may authorise any other director to vote for him at that meeting, and in that event the director so authorised shall have a vote for each director by whom he is so authorised in addition to his own vote. Any such authority must be in writing or by cable, fax, radiogram, telegram or e-mail which must be produced at the meeting at which the same is to be used, and be left with the Secretary for filing. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancies, but if and so long as the number of directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles, the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of filling up such vacancies or of summoning general meetings of the Company, but not for any other purpose.
99. All acts done at any meeting of the directors, or by any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified and had continued to be a director, and had been entitled to be a director.
100. When all the directors in person sign the minutes of a meeting of the directors, the same shall be deemed to have been duly held notwithstanding that no notice or insufficient notice of such meeting may have been given, or that the directors have not actually come together, or that there may have been technical defects in the proceedings. And a resolution in writing, in one or more parts, signed by all the directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly called and constituted.

Powers of Directors

101. The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these Articles, to the provisions of the Act, and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Borrowing Powers

102. The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow, raise or secure money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party. Subject to Sections 30 and 31 of the Act, the Company may give financial assistance to any person by means of a loan, guarantee or otherwise for any purpose including the purchase of shares in the Company.

103. The directors may raise or secure the repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, by the issue of notes, bonds, perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock of every kind, or any mortgage, charge, or other security on the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future), including its uncalled capital for the time being.

Local Management

104. (1) The directors may, from time to time, provide for the management of the affairs of the Company abroad in such manner as they shall think fit, and the provisions contained in the four next following paragraphs shall be without prejudice to the general powers conferred by this paragraph.

(2) The directors may, from time to time, and at any time, establish any local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company abroad, and may appoint any persons to be members of any such local board, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration.

(3) The directors may, from time to time, and at any time delegate to any persons so appointed any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time being vested in the directors, and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local board, or any of them, to fill up any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the directors may think fit, and the directors may at any time remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation.

(4) The directors may, at any time, and from time to time, by power of attorney under the seal, appoint any person to be the attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the directors under these Articles), and for such period and subject to such conditions as the directors may from time to time think fit; and any such appointment may (if the directors think fit) be made in favour of the members or any of the members of any local board established as aforesaid, or in favour of any company, or of the members, directors, nominees, or managers of any company or firm, or otherwise in favour of any fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the directors; and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorneys as the directors think fit.

(5) Any such delegates or attorneys as aforesaid may be authorised by the directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time being vested in them.

105. The directors may exercise the powers conferred on the Company by Section 26 of the Act.
106. The Company, or the directors on behalf of the Company, may cause to be kept in any place outside The Bahamas a copy of its register of members, and the directors may make and vary such regulations as they may think fit respecting the keeping of any such copy register.
107. The directors may comply with the requirements of any foreign law which in their opinion it shall in the interests of the Company be necessary or expedient to comply with.

Officers

108. The officers of the Company shall be appointed annually by the directors, at the first meeting of the directors following the Annual General Meeting in each year, and shall consist of a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such other officers, whether or not including one or more Assistant Secretaries, and one or more Assistant Treasurers, as the directors may from time to time think necessary.
109. The officers, in addition to the duties prescribed by these Articles, shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the directors. They shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, but any officer may be removed at any time by the Company in general meeting or by the directors. If any office becomes vacant during the year, the directors may fill the same for the unexpired term.
110. Any person may hold more than one of these offices, and no officer need be a member of the Company.

President

111. The President if and when elected or appointed shall have the general supervision of the affairs of the Company and shall make such reports to the directors and shareholders as he may deem necessary or as may be required of him, and perform all such other duties as are incident to his office or may be prescribed by the directors.

Vice Presidents

112. Vice-Presidents if and when elected or appointed shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the President or the directors.

Treasurer

113. The Treasurer if and when elected or appointed shall have the custody of the funds and securities of the Company and shall deposit to the credit of the Company, with a bank to be selected by the directors, all the funds of the Company. He shall keep regular books of account and shall sign or countersign such documents or instruments as require his signature, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the directors.

Secretary

114. The Secretary shall attend and keep the minutes of the meetings of the members, of the directors, and of all committees of directors. He shall also summon meetings, and keep such other books and records of the Company and the directors as may be required by the Company in general meeting, or the directors, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by these Articles, the Company in general meeting, or the directors.

The Seal

115. The directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, and without prejudice to Articles 104, 115 and 116, every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed unless otherwise provided by the directors, by a director and witnessed by the Secretary, another director or officer of the Company.

Authentication of Documents

116. Any director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the directors for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any document affecting the constitution of the Company, any resolution passed by the company or the directors, or any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies thereof or any extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts; and where any books, records, documents or accounts are elsewhere than at the Registered Office the local manager or other officer of the Company having custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the directors as aforesaid.
117. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution of the directors or members or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the directors or members which is certified as such in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding article shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that such extract is a true and accurate record of a duly constituted meeting of the directors or members.

Dividends

118. Subject to Section 61 of the Act and subject to any preferential or other special rights for the time being attached to any class of shares, the directors may from time to time declare and pay such dividends as appear to the directors to be justified by the profits or surplus of the Company.
119. The directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as in their judgment the profits or surplus of the Company justifies.
120. The directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
121. The directors may retain any dividends payable on shares on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
122. The directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a member, or which any person under those provisions is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.
123. The payment by the directors of any unclaimed dividend into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof, and any dividend unclaimed after a period of six years from the date of declaration of such dividend shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.
124. Any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member or person entitled thereto, and in case of joint holders to any one of such joint holders, or to such person and such address as the holder or joint holders may direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, or to such person as the holder or joint holders may direct, and payment of the cheque or warrant, if purporting to be endorsed, shall be a good discharge to the Company. Every such cheque or warrant shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented thereby.
125. If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of them may give effectual receipts for any dividend or other monies payable on or in respect of the share.
126. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared whether interim or otherwise, shall be given to each member either by advertisement or by notice in manner hereinafter mentioned.

127. No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company.
128. Any general meeting declaring a dividend may direct payment of such dividend wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular, of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the company, or paid up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other Company, or in any one or more of such ways, and the directors shall give effect to such resolutions; and, where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, they may settle the same as they think expedient.

Minutes and Books

129. The directors shall cause minutes to be made in books to be provided for the purpose:-
- (1) of all appointments of officers made by the directors;
 - (2) of the names of the directors present at each meeting of directors and of any committee of directors; and
 - (3) of all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Company, and of any class of members of the Company, and of the directors, and of committees of directors.
130. The directors shall duly comply with all statutory provisions in regard to keeping a register of directors and managers and a register of members, and in regard to the filing of a list of directors and managers with their names, addresses and occupations and such amendments thereto in accordance with the statutory provisions.
131. Any register, index, minute book, book of account, or other book required by these Articles or by Act to be kept by the Company may be kept either by making entries in bound books or by recording them in any other manner. But in any case in which bound books are not used, the directors shall take adequate precautions for guarding against falsification and for facilitating its discovery.

Accounts

132. The directors shall cause to be kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
133. The books of account shall be kept at one of the offices of the Company. No member (other than a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by Act or authorised by the directors or by ordinary resolution of the Company.
